red medium-sweet

Cultivation area

The mountainous vineyards of Aigialeia in Eastern Achaia and selected vineyards in the winemaking region of Nemea

Grape varieties

The mountainous Merlot of the Slopes of Aigialeia and the well-known Agiorgitiko of Nemea.

Wine style

Winemaking

Careful selection of the mountainous Merlot and Agiorgitiko grapes for them to arrive to the winery in the ideal state of maturity and hygiene. Harvest in small crates up to 20 pounds. Maceration at low temperature and subsequent fermentation at moderate temperatures not exceeding the 20°C. Separation from the skins with mild pressure. Before the end, the fermentation is stopped by deep freezing to maintain the desired level of natural residual sugars. Bottled under inert gas atmosphere.

Personality

A modern and light red wine full of aromas of small red fruits and red flowers. Mellow and velvety in the mouth. It ideally accompanies roasted meat with sweet-and-sour sauces and Asian cuisine.
